

Pre-Conditions:

The user has a registered account in the system.

The user is logged into the system.

The tool is available for reservation.

Tool details (price, condition) are already stored in the system.

A valid payment method is available (e.g., Credit Card).

Post-Conditions:

A reservation is successfully created with status "Confirmed".

The reservation is linked to the user and the tool.

The tool status is updated to "Reserved".

The payment is successfully processed and recorded.

The deposit is held with status "Held".

All reservation details (dates, price, etc.) are stored in the system.